The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11 and 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stein 5628055.

Stein substantially discloses the claimed invention, including a processor-based (laptop computer) system having housing 200, power cable 254, swappable component 131 with connector 54, and pivotable access door 280 which allows electrical access to the battery of the computer (via swappable component 131 and door opening 273) to permit charging thereof by power supply 250.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stein as applied to claims 11 and 13-15 above, and further in view of the admitted prior art.

Stein substantially discloses the claimed invention except for the laptop computer having an external memory card. The admitted prior art (instant page 1) discloses swappable external memory cards, and to provide the processor based device (laptop) of Stein with an external memory card at another location on the device thus would have been obvious, to add memory capacity.

Claims 1-4, 6-10, 21, 22, 24-33 are allowed.

Claims 16, 17 and 19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Applicant's arguments filed May 18, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The scope of claim 11 has substantially changed, thus necessitating the above rejection.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP §706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
